BOY TO BE HANGED.

Irvin Hancock, a 14-year-old Connecticut boy, was found guilty in the criminal court at Deland, Florida, yesterday, of the murder of Cleve Todd, a 13-year-old girl. He was sentenced to be hanged.

Hancock met the girl while she was on her way to school, and when she rejected his advances he stabbed her to death. He only escaped lynching by being spirited away.

Hancock maintained a stolid indifference to the testimony and received the death sentence with the same demeanor. He went to the stand and related the brutal details of the murder in hopes of substantiating his plea of insanity. He is a former inmate of the Connecticut State reform school.

Irvin Hancock formerly lived in New Haven, Conn. He was sent to the State Reform School for boys for being an incorrigible, and while at the institution his conduct was such that he was placed on probation and allowed to accompany W. T. Wooley to Florida.

One thousand dollars was the price paid by Frank Frantz for a moment's flirtation with girls in front of a five-cent theater in Chicago Sunday night, when, in pulling out a handkerchief to wipe at them, he accidentally drew out a roll of paper money, amounting to $1,000, the savings of five years. He later missed his money and returned to the theatre, but it could not be found.
